

Avoid misinformation & become a good digital citizen!

Media Literacy Tips

Think before you share news or other content online.

Be mindful of emotional language or imagery, and think about how this affects your interpretation.

Participate in "lateral reading," or fact checking. Look at other sources to confirm that what you're reading is true.

Consider the source. What is the point of view? Is there a particular agenda?

Determine the purpose, including whether what you are reading is news, opinion or "analysis."